VIEW FROM THE TOP

Summer has officially arrived - or so they tell us. Unfortunately nobody told the weather gods. Mind you, it is thanks to them that NUDVAN won the cricket match against AONC held during our Christmas rally - rain stopped play whilst we were ahead! Despite the last minute change of venue the rally was enjoyed by all those who came. Santa couldn't make it this year because of a double booking and Michael Jackson had to send a stand in as he is no longer available to take on earthly engagements. Nevertheless Pam Ayres did give us a surprise poetry reading and the Ferrero Rocher chocolates from the lucky dip were very popular indeed as they did the rounds.

Arise Sir Michael (AONC November 2009)

At Labour weekend we joined BOP Sun Club this year for their craft extravaganza weekend. Their hospitality is legendary and did not disappoint us. We were still eating leftovers from Saturday evening's meal on Monday! Their grounds are now in fantastic condition thanks to lots of hard work by club members - well worth a visit.

Back in October I attended a NZNF workshop at Wellington Sun Club to discuss the future of the naturist community (we're no longer allowed to call it a movement) which was very worthwhile. One of the suggestions that came from our discussions is that NZNF should set up an informal board comprising a delegate from each affiliated organization which communicates regularly by email and meets annually to discuss current issues in more depth than can be done at the formal AGM. Enclosed is a summary of this workshop for your information.

We have a full programme of rallies this summer so read on for more details. A number of Nudvanners are venturing south for the Pineglades rally and some are going on to cycle the Otago Rail Trail afterwards - Glenne has officially been warned against riding owing to her track record at previous rallies (pun intended).

Our best wishes go to Heather who has had to cancel all activities owing to shingles. Do get well soon, won't you?

November Sports Report

In the cricket that we played against AONC - NUDVAN won 64 to AONC's 27. At the meal John R (NUDVAN president) was presented with a sword trophy by Con from AONC.

At the indoor bowls pairs - Stan and Barbara from NUDVAN won. Everybody enjoyed good fun "Balls" bowls. People playing "balls" looking for rings for which side to play or what "balls" to play (a ladies joke).

The Christmas meal and gifts were great fun with the chocolates being most popular, and a lot of fun was had by all.

Thank you to the NUDVAN Committee for organising a great meal, and special thanks to AONC for having NUDVAN at such short notice and participating in the sports tournament.

Sports Day Invitation

Auckland Outdoor is holding a fun interclub sports day on February 20th 2010. We are inviting all of the clubs to join us. We realise that some clubs are too far away from Auckland for you to organise teams, but should any of your members be in the area at the time they are more than welcome to come and take part in the fun. Could you please put a mention of our interclub challenge in your news letter or on your notice board so that people can plan ahead. Should there be any queries regarding the sports day, please email
